NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZERS
WASHINGTON, DC METRO CHAPTER ANNOUNCES ANNUAL SEMINAR 2007

Washington, DC – November 26, 2006 – The National Association of Professional Organizers, Washington, DC – Metro Chapter (NAPO-WDC) is hosting its 9th Annual Seminar on March 17, 2007. The NAPO-WDC Annual Seminar is the Mid-Atlantic's largest venue that specifically targets Professional Organizers. It is a day long event taking place at the DoubleTree Hotel & Executive Meeting Seminar Center in Bethesda, Maryland. This year's Seminar is titled "Break Through: Take Your Business and Clients to the Next Level".

NAPO-WDC's Annual Seminar focuses primarily on continuing education for Professional Organizers. This event will provide relevant training to its attendees, and will allow them the opportunity to reenergize their business, meet the vendors that supply products and services to the industry, and to network with their peers. The Annual Seminar is open to Professional Organizers and those interested in the profession.

The Annual Seminar Committee Members are in the process of finalizing the selections for Opening and Closing Keynote Speakers as well as Workshop Presenters. An announcement of confirmed Speakers and Sponsors will be made by December 5, 2006. As in years past, this year's seminar will feature an On-Site Bookstore with books related to the organizing industry. Back by popular demand is the Vendor Marketplace which sold out in 2006. It will again feature a diverse group of merchants with services and products used by Professional Organizers.

The NAPO-WDC Chapter is recognized as the central resource in the area for organizing professionals. The chapter educates members in the techniques of organizing and in their adaptation to the different learning styles of our clients, and promotes the highest standards of ethics and professional competence. "My involvement in NAPO on both the local and national levels has been a great contribution to my business," noted Scott Roewer, President of NAPO-WDC.

The National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO) is a premier nationwide organization of over 4,000 members dedicated to developing, leading, and promoting Professional Organizers, and defining high quality standards for the organizing profession.
